EXHIBIT 1

(https://educationdata.org/cost-of-online-education-vs-traditional-education)

Cost of Online Education vs. Traditional Education

By Melanie Hanson | Last Updated: August 18, 2021

Fact Checked | 📕 Cite this Webpage

Report Highlights. For public 4 year colleges, when tuition and the cost of attendance are compared between an online degree and an in-person degree, the online degree is $10,776 cheaper.

- Private institutions on average charge $58,560 for an online degree vs $148,800 for an in-person degree.

- Students who commute to college for in-person classes pay $3,400 per year in transportation costs an online student wouldn't have to pay.

- Students who attend in-person classes pay $1,380 dollars more for a campus meal plan than meals made at home.

- The cost of an online degree based on tuition from a public university is roughly $37,920 vs $37,320 for the same degree, in-person.